Amit Shah attacks Congress over rally held on Sikh riots anniversary

NewzNow Desk | 1 Nov 2026, 5:11 PM

Union Home Minister Amit Shah has accused the Congress of disregarding Sikh sentiments by holding a gathering in Delhi on the anniversary of the 1984 anti-Sikh riots, when, he said, thousands of Sikhs were burnt alive.

Speaking from what he described as the land of the Gurus, Shah said the Narendra Modi government had reopened all cases linked to the violence, provided ₹5 lakh in assistance to riot victims and put prominent Congress leaders behind bars. These were claims made by Shah in his speech.

He said India had neither seen nor would see such politically motivated riots, and criticised the Congress for its role. Shah referred to former prime minister Rajiv Gandhi's 1984 remark that when a big tree falls, the earth shakes.

Nadda alleged that the Opposition was using the name of democracy to create unrest and destabilise an elected government. Describing the rally as an “orchestrated drama”, Nadda outlined what he called a four-stage “anarchy model” of the Opposition’s politics. According to him, the first stage involves spreading misinformation and rumours about electoral processes and voter rolls. The second involves street protests aimed at disrupting administration. The third, he alleged, seeks to damage the economy by disrupting markets and supply chains.
