ATASU leader threatens Sivasagar bandh on November 6 over Jamuna encroachment

NewzNow Desk | 2 Nov 2026, 6:48 PM

Sivasagar: Basanta Gogoi, president of ATASU, said on Monday that the organisation would call a bandh on the 6th, alleging that the administration had failed to act against encroachment and activities affecting Jamuna in Sivasagar.

Gogoi alleged that some people had turned part of Jamuna into a goat-slaughter site and were dumping faeces, urine and slaughter waste there. He said ATASU had asked the administration, the government and the local Sivasagar MLA to intervene, but claimed no action had followed.
