Gaurav Gogoi calls 2026 Assam polls 'illegal', vows fight against BJP

Assam Congress chief Gaurav Gogoi alleged electoral irregularities and questioned the state government's record on health and transport.

শাহ আলম | 21 Nov 2026, 6:07 PM

Assam Pradesh Congress Committee president Gaurav Gogoi termed the 2026 Assam Assembly election and the Nagaon Lok Sabha by-election "illegal" and said the Congress would continue its political fight against the BJP.

At a press conference, Gogoi alleged large-scale irregularities in elections but said the Congress would not stay away from the electoral contest. Contesting elections would help the party collect evidence of irregularities and place it before the people, he said.

BJP MP Nishikant Dubey to write book on Sonia Gandhi

NewzNow Desk | 21 Nov 2026, 7:38 PM

BJP MP Nishikant Dubey on Saturday announced that he would write a book on Congress Parliamentary Party chairperson Sonia Gandhi, covering her political life and historical events related to the Congress.

In a post on X, Dubey said the book would not be an attack on Gandhi but a detailed account of her political journey. He also listed 10 questions that he said the book would seek to answer.

These included how Sonia Gandhi became the owner of Maruti, how the National Herald was acquired, whether she wielded more influence than the prime minister between 2004 and 2014, and the "real story" of the Bofors scandal.

Modi claims gold prices fell after his appeal to limit purchases

NewzNow Desk | 21 Nov 2026, 8:02 PM

Prime Minister Narendra Modi claimed in a video uploaded on Saturday that gold prices fell after Indians responded to his appeal to limit gold purchases for a year unless necessary.

Modi said he had urged people not to buy gold if they did not need it, and that citizens bought less gold after his appeal.

He claimed the reduced buying caused gold prices to "break", adding that people had told him they saved money because they followed his advice.

Modi compared the response to the way, he said, the country had followed former prime ministe...

Rahul Gandhi blames Manipur BJP government over spurious liquor deaths

NewzNow Desk | 21 Nov 2026, 8:14 PM

Rahul Gandhi accused the BJP government in Manipur of negligence over deaths linked to spurious liquor, saying the incident came after violence in the state.

Gandhi held the state government responsible for what he described as a failure of governance. He alleged that the government had failed to prevent deaths caused by poisonous alcohol.

Gandhi raised the issue of deaths linked to spurious or poisonous liquor while attacking the Manipur government.
